

SUCCESS, NO MATTER WHAT!

Goals matter; winning matters
These matter for sure
You feel charged, you feel ready
To take on the challenges.

Effort matters in equal strength
It adds much to the present-
Joy and a smile – an inner smile,
An outer smile that comes from toil
Such feel that brings self-respect.

Effort builds self-discipline-
The pillar of success
For now and the road ahead.

We learn from success
From challenges and failures
We reflect and introspect
Success builds on each of these
Thus in a sense
There is only success.
